

CVs - KIC IE Key Experts

Fredrik Billing (Project Leader and Business Team Leader). MBA, Stockholm School of economics. M.Sc. in economics, Stockholm University. An experienced business coach with a successful track record in management, development and financing of innovative technology firms, with demonstrated competence in the Smart Grid sector. Venture financing expertise, have contributed to the start-up of a number of entrepreneurial firms. Enormous experience not only in the areas of energy and environmental technology but also areas of innovation/spinouts in big enterprises.

Key experiences:

- Adviser on project innovation and business process at Swedish Energy Agency.
- Advisor on the digital economy and policy management at Post net Ltd, a development company within the Postal service Sweden.
- Adviser at Vattenfall's research and innovation support in the energy sector.
- Partner and co-owner of The Silver Hand, which develop a digital Innovation Platform.

Dr. Arshad Saleem (Technical Team Leader). PhD in electric power systems, Technical University of Denmark. Dr. Saleem is working at KIC InnoEnergy as technical expert for the thematic field of smart grid and Storage since 2014. Prior to joining KIC InnoEnergy he has spent extended time at ABB Ventyx at Vesterås, has been working at KTH Stockholm and CMU in Pittsburgh, PA USA within the field of power system control and automation. He is an active member of IEEE and IEC and has been part of the development of industry standards for communication and information modeling for electric power systems. He has worked on several large European demonstration project in collaboration with companies such as Vattenfall, Dong Energy, RWE, UFD/GNF and Iberdrola.

Key Experiences

- Technical task leader at the Distributed Intelligence for Cost-effective and Reliable Solutions(DISCERN) project from 2012-2015
- Advisor at project Grid4EU with a collaboration with Vatenfall which investigate the service Level Agreement SLA based new market models for electric power distribution and generation domain.
- Technical advisor at KIC InnoEnergy INSTINCT - LTE for Smart grid project in corporate with Ericsson for the evaluation of the 4G application for smart grid.
- Task leader of the project CIM for HVDC with collaborations of ABB Ventyx and KTH at 2013

Bo Normark (Thematic Leader of the project) has about 35 year's industrial experience in ABB where he served in many managerial roles with global responsibility. Focus was on power transmission equipment including advanced smart transmission grid technologies.

Key Roles:

- Co-chairman, Euro-CASE Energy Platform
- Member and former chair of the Electro Technical Division of the Royal Swedish Academy of Engineering Sciences (IVA)
- Chairman of International Smart Grid Action Network (ISGAN)
- Vice Chairman of the National Council for Smart Grids established by the Minister of Enterprise, Energy and Communication
- Member of the Energy Development Board, Swedish Energy Agency a subordinate to the Ministry of Enterprise, Energy and Communications

Eric Jensen (Business developer). M.Sc in Mechanical engineering, Royal institute of technology, Stockholm. Founder of the LSO project together with Fredrik Billing, Arshad Saleem and Albin Engholm. Experience from managing feasibility study with the Swedish Energy Agency, MDU and Industry business development, customer and stakeholder relationship management.